Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5. U.S.C. § 552, and the implementing regulations of your agency¹, Accountable.US requests access to and copies of review reports referred to in President Trump's May 19, 2020 Executive Order on Regulatory Relief to Support Economic Recovery,² as described in section 7 below that were submitted between August 28, 2020 and September 15, 2020.

Section 7: "The heads of all agencies shall review any regulatory standards they have temporarily rescinded, suspended, modified, or waived during the public health emergency, any such actions they take pursuant to section 4 of this order, and other regulatory flexibilities they have implemented in response to COVID-19, whether before or after issuance of this order, and determine which, if any, would promote economic recovery if made permanent, insofar as doing so is consistent with the policy considerations identified in section 1 of this order, and report the results of such review to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy, and the Assistant to the President for Economic Policy."

"Correspondence" should include but not be limited to: emails, email attachments, text messages, telephone call logs, calendar invitations/entries, meeting notices, meeting agendas, informational material, talking points, any handwritten or electronic notes taken during any responsive communications, summaries of any responsive communications, or other materials reflecting communications sent to, from, carbon copying (CC), or blind carbon copying (BCC) all relevant individuals.

Fee Waiver Request

² Executive Order on Regulatory Relief to Support Economic Recovery, 5/19/20

ACCOUNTABLE^{.US}

Accountable.US requests a waiver of fees because it qualifies for classification as a “news media” requester, responsible only for duplication fees under FOIA's fee assessment provisions.³

So-called media status is consistent with how Accountable.US components have been treated by multiple agencies. The U.S. Department of the Treasury, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), and Federal Communications Commission (FCC) have all recognized this status in light of the regular publication and dissemination activities in which Accountable.US and its components, engage. Accountable.US will also make materials it gathers available on its public website.⁴

The disclosure of the requested information is also “in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding” of government operations and is not “primarily in the commercial interest of the requester.” The disclosure of the information sought under this request will document and reveal the operations of the federal government, including how public funds are spent and how officials conduct the public's business.

This request is primarily and fundamentally for non-commercial purposes.⁵ On March 26, 2019, Accountable.US applied to be recognized as a not for profit, 501(c)(3) organization, with the Internal Revenue Service. Accordingly, Accountable.US does not have a commercial purpose and the release of the information requested is not in Accountable.US's financial interest. Accountable.US's mission is to ensure public officials are advancing policies in the public's interest not for special interests.

Accordingly, Accountable.US qualifies for a fee waiver.

Request for Expedited Processing.

Pursuant to the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(1) and your agency's regulations,⁶ Accountable.US requests expedited processing of this request. To that end, Accountable.US states the following:

I certify to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief that the information requested is urgently needed in order to inform the public about actual or alleged government activity.

I [further] certify to be true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief that there is widespread and exceptional media interest and there exist possible questions concerning the government's integrity, which affect public confidence.

Conclusion

³ 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(iii).

⁴ Accountable.US and its components have demonstrated a commitment to public disclosure and public education through its website. For example, their websites contain multiple substantive analyses, document repositories, and other educational resources: AlliedProgress.org/research; AlliedProgress.org/campaigns; RestorePublicTrust.org/news; RestorePublicTrust.org/BigPharmasBestFriends; WesternValuesProject.org/DepartmentofInfluence

ACCOUNTABLE^{.US}

If you have any questions regarding this request, including how to construe the records sought or appropriate searches to locate them, please contact Accountable.US.

If my request is denied in whole or part, I ask that you justify all deletions by reference to specific exemptions of the act. Additionally, if any documents are withheld based on the Agency's interpretation of any exemption, Accountable.US requests that you provide an index of those documents as required under Vaughn v. Rosen, 484 F.2d 820 (D.C. Cir. 1973), cert. denied, 415 U.S. 977 (1974). Specifically, this Vaughn index should describe withheld documents with enough specificity to determine whether the material is exempt under the act and must describe each document or portion withheld.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Chris Saeger
